BUSTINUS I don't know what it is but I've just been on the hype train of this game. I'm a huge fan of the elder scrolls franchise and so a fantasy action rpg sounds awesome. The hype is continuing on in it's continuous gameplay updates since it was released. So I decided to try it and what an experience it's been. First of all the gameplay itself is such a smooth transition from turn based mechanics to realtime. With each turn there's a completely new mechanic and with each new action there's a new feeling you get as you hack and slash your way through. It's so much fun with the gameplay. But my most favorite thing about this game is the character creation. You can design your character from head to toe and so much detail is put into their design. It feels so bad ass to get a newborn version of your character and be stuck to their side. Just like Aion and that was very unique and enjoyable but in Elden Ring you customize your characters so much it almost feels like you're playing as your favorite elf, wizard, or witch. You get to choose everything about their appearance, their movement, and their voice. It's such a wonderful experience and I enjoy that so much because it makes the game even more enjoyable to play and is something I never felt in any other turn based games or MMO's. Now for the sidequests themselves they are very enjoyable and while they're part of the main story line they feel like a part of the game you should try to complete. Everything in this game is an enjoyable experience and everything is done so well. From the main storyline quests, to the sidequests, the quests in the taverns, to the NPCs, the soundtrack, the gameplay mechanics, and I could go on and on about how much fun this game is. I recommend it to anyone, this game is just plain fun to play. See... I was even going to explain why I didn't give it a 10/10 but I'll keep it to a 9/10. I gave it a 9/10 because I wanted to let the developers have enough time to make this game as good as it is. So if you're looking for a perfect AAA RPG, this is not it. But if you like the Elder Scrolls and fantasy games then this will fit right in with you. It's not just an RPG that bff6bb2d33

What's new in Elden Ring:

Have you ever wanted to visit a castle for nothing just to enjoy the gorgeous views or to meet other villagers for a random reason? Then this is the game for you! I'm Wulf; or more commonly known as the Ghostkid. I work as a spy for an organization that I've chosen to call the ''Ghost Society''. My job is to gather information from other people, and usually they are in a castle. - Wait, how is it possible that a perfect village has a boss like that? - I can't get a hold of him to ask him to read through some of his information. - I have nowhere to discuss things with the other spies. There isn't much of a use to having a small 'pearly' village like this, except it being a good place to practice. -...huh? ... The phone rings. Hello? Yes, Sir? What was the name of the village? The village you gave me? What's the name? Are you sure? Yes, Sir. Why are you sounding so mischievous? Mhm. It's extremely relaxing listening to the soft noise of nature. I'll be waiting for your reply. I'm hanging up now. What? Um... I'm out. - Ghostkid? I'm telling you, why are you so quiet when you just got home? What have you been doing? Have you eaten yet? Forget the food. I know everything about you. What's wrong? - You had a horrible face when I called the other day, didn't you? -.... - R-Right? You're correct. I tried contacting you often, but you didn't turn on your phone. Really? That's right. Aren't you just as talkative as I? I'm sorry. How are you feeling, Wulf? Can't you let me talk in peace? You're beautiful today, aren't you. ... You're right. I'll think of something. Sir, wait. I can't stand it. How about we go hunting together this week? Are you sure? Yes. Really? That means a lot to me. Okay then. - Shotgun? Right. Why is it so stinky outside? Did something smelly
