HyperMotion Technology helps bring to life real football actions, including a player sprinting forward and engaging his opponents at speed. It also permits non-player characters to impact gameplay with football-specific reactions and sounds. The new technology also makes for a more realistic and immersive experience than ever before, adding to the amazing mix of organic control and human-controlled players on the pitch. The five official licenses in FIFA are updated as well. From its initial release in 2005 to the critically acclaimed FIFA 18, the FIFA series has been part of the most prestigious sports video game awards and become a worldwide recognized franchise. Today, millions of players worldwide enjoy the experience of football in all its beauty and excitement through the FIFA franchise, for which Electronic Arts is responsible. HyperMotion Technology In FIFA 22, Real Life Player Motion (RLPM) technology will bring to life some of the most exciting and realistic football features in the history of the FIFA series. But perhaps more important, it is a leap forward in terms of gameplay and creates a fresh experience for all of you. In this article we will show you what you can expect, and how you will be able to enjoy the result: the game you love in a completely new and advanced way. HyperMotion Technology enhances the FIFA experience by unlocking previously unreachable control modes by adding data from real-life players that played a full-match. These real-life players use motion capture suits to record their actions while playing matches in each official licensed team's kit. The result of this incredible set of data is gameplay that is more immersive, dynamic and exciting than ever before. Thanks to the Real Life Player Motion, you will experience the following features: - HyperMovement Engine provides an unprecedented level of athleticism and acrobatics thanks to Real Life Player Motion. - Full Immersion Mode: play with new advanced controls allowing the player to control the game in all the situations. - Significant improvements and enhancements in the Player Impact Engine that, for example, make the players react to head clashes with more detail. - Real Player Control: authentic natural movement of the player along with the movements of his player control, with the controller held in both hands. - Dynamic AI: Dynamic AI will understand the players, their actions and the nature of the game, thus enhancing the experience of the game. - Enhanced Touch Control: Thanks to Real Life Player Motion, the player's touches will register to the player

What's new:

- FIFA 22 introduces HyperMotion Technology. - Winner of the FIFA Fan Award for “Most Innovative Gameplay” category, FIFA 22 introduces HyperMotion Technology (HMT), which captures real footballers’ performances during real match situations and uses it to provide a higher level of realism in every aspect of the gameplay. When using FIFA Ultimate Team, your in-game actions will directly affect your performance statistics, the teams you build, and the rewards you receive. Each time you kick the ball, dribble, pass and shoot, HMT offers more detailed movement data that captures precise movements for more accurate passing and shooting. For both new players and seasoned veterans, HMT enables an experience that redefines the way you play football.
 - Street Pass and Throw - In order to work more fluidly with your teammates, the innovative new pass and throw feature, Street Pass and Throw, allows you to perform a magic throw without intercepting the ball with your foot first. By capitalizing on your teammate's momentum, this feature allows you to perform smorgasbord moves with the ball. To apply a pass, press the left analog stick forward quickly to set up an easy pass, while to apply a throw, press the analog stick forward and then press RB to kick the ball to your teammate. Press both R2 and the left analog stick backward for the reverse version - similar to shooting - while holding the shoot button to perform a bend of your own.
 - Parental Control - The innovative Parental Controls feature allows you to restrict your children’s FIFA experience on the Switch to create a separate non-game account, so they can’t attempt to play in your team. Child accounts can be managed from the Switch companion app, downloaded by your kids, and restrict access to certain areas of the FIFA Ultimate Team collection.
 - My Club: In “My Club,” you can customize your own stadium, customize your starting formation, upload photos, and share with friends. From huge screens and far away goals, to customized banners and team names, the new My Club mode provides opportunities to share your personal touch to your favorite club.

- Recovery System: For first time's situations in Challenge mode, the Recovery System improves the experience of completed matches
