What does this mean? FIFA 22 introduces “HyperMotion Technology,” a revolutionary new series of technologies that take advantage of what players experience in complete, high-intensity football matches in motion capture suits. The tools we’ve included in FIFA 22 use motion capture data to not only make FIFA’s behaviour on the pitch more realistic, but to also make the gameplay more fun. How does it work? HyperMotion Technology is deeply integrated into the brand new FIFA intelligence. New ways to create and execute attacking concepts, new ways to tactically shape your opponent’s defensive build, and new ways to control the ball – all of these are now powered by the new player behaviours harvested in game. As a result, the game is based on authentic moves from players. How does it feel? FIFA 22 introduces many new ways to execute and improve attacking concepts, based on authentic actions that players make. Due to the authentic AI, your opponent will no longer counter with predictable, predictable moves. As a result, players will have to adapt their plays and tactics to keep up with your opponent. This is what we call “originality.” How does it feel? FIFA 22 introduces new ways to execute and improve attacking concepts, based on authentic actions that players make. What's new in Fifa 22:

- Player ratings. Stay on the ball, predict where the ball is heading and control your entire body to beat the controls so you can take on players at their very best. The impact and power of every player will come to life in every match, with each player's ratings more reflective of how they'll perform in the authentic and much-improved game.
- "Head to Head". Analyse and shape the games from new angles in the new "Head to Head" gameplay. Use the angles and trajectory of the ball in conjunction with the skills of the players on the ball to win the faceoff.
- Goalkeeper controls. The goalkeeper can now choose to react to the ball he's getting control of from 1-5, 5 being the best, meaning you can now really anticipate exactly what the goalkeeper is going to do, the best captain you could ask for. A whole new level of strategy with the new goal keeper controls.
- Dynamic weather conditions. Stay on the ball and anticipate to avoid the rain or snow, freezing temperatures, and sand flies in the air. Each weather condition has been completely re-built, with built-in weather effects and weather controls such as snowdrift amount, time of day, rainfall and wind. You will also be able to make snowman with an upcoming feature.
- Player data export. Your entire collection of players now feature increased ‘magazine’ style stats: Free player status (for all Pro Clubs where player bar ratings are available), mastery (will be split into 10 different categories to keep it relevant to gameplay) and player ratings, making it easy to save your best players and use them in your Ultimate team. All players exported for Ultimate Team will have an icon indicating their "Best in the World" status.
- New opponents. You will be able to play as Real Madrid against Real Madrid, and face Manchester United in the EFL Trophy and English National Teams.
- New community creation.

Football is revered the world over for the passion it evokes, the unpredictability of the outcome and the glory of victory. The millions of fans that turn out to support their favorite teams in the hope of bringing home a trophy are emotional witnesses to a unique global sport. EA SPORTS FIFA 22 raises the bar for what fans can experience in a videogame by recreating the excitement of matches and delivering new features to enhance in-game experience. FIFA Football returns, reinvented, in FIFA 22. The FIFA Football Journey Players can experience football like never before, thanks to enhanced ball control and reactions, added power, speed and power. Whether you're a seasoned striker or a quick-thinking midfielder, every player will have the tools to outplay their competition in FIFA Football. For the first time, the World Player experience is deeper and more immersive, introducing Football Your Way — a game-changing authentication system that will further tailor the player experience based on a player's personal preferences and future goals. This advanced authentication system is combined with a new feature allowing for 360° camera views and refined match tactics, as well as the introduction of the video assistant referee (VAR) for the first time in the FUT series. Player Body Dynamics Player Body Dynamics, which was introduced in FIFA 19, has been upgraded, refined and tuned for better responsiveness and increased accuracy. The timing of player actions has been finely tuned, while responsiveness in player movement has been improved and the degree of force generated when players tackle and block has been increased. Increased player speed Increased player speed has resulted in players sprinting further and more quickly, with the new Sprint Acceleration system working in tandem with Player Body Dynamics. Players will react faster when sprinting, while also absorbing the effects of collision and tackling a player just as they would on the pitch. Ball control Unrivalled ball control, a skill that is key to the sport and is at the heart of your every movement, has been significantly enhanced. This includes more deliberate and accurate controlled chips, headers and shots, as well as dribbles. New scoring animations Full-body in-game animations have been created for all the key player skills, including shots, goal kicks, headers, penalty kicks and free kicks. Improved animations will bring the artistry of a professional player to the pitch and simulate what happens on the ground as players perform their moves. Grass reacts To closely
