, Fractured Society ~ ~ See you at the Facebook Party, 7-8 September! ~ Titled “Fractured Environment, Fractured Society”, this Symposium is a global forum for expertise and dialogue on Asia-Pacific climate change and its impacts. Keynote speakers include: Rolf Peter Brutsaert, Professor Emeritus of Atmospheric Sciences, Nasa’s Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Pasadena, USA; Professor Patricia Mulville, Director of the Australian Centre of Excellence in Climate and Water, Executive Dean (Research and Industry) and the inaugural Dean of the Graduate School at Griffith University, Brisbane, Australia; Stuart Ritchie, IISD Director and IRPC; and Profina Hasan, Deputy Chair and Executive Dean (Research) at the University of Adelaide, Australia, and Chair of the Scientific Committee of the IISD. Professor Patricia Mulville, Director of the Australian Centre of Excellence in Climate and Water at Griffith University, will give the keynote address “How Science Favours Fossil Fuels”. For her address, Patricia will be given the James Cook Medal by the Royal Society of Australia in 2019. Join us on 6 November at 7:30pm to hear presenter Bill Law’s pre-symposium introduction. The theme is “Climate Change & Human Health”, with papers assessing the scientific evidence and public health and wellbeing impacts of climate change in the Pacific region. For the eighth consecutive year, the IRPC Symposium has concluded with the Asia-Pacific Association for Community and Multicultural Education (APACE) and the IISD launching the World Environment Education Day (WED) on 19 June, celebrating the UN’s goal of Education for Sustainable Development (ESD), and commemorating this year’s theme “Climate Change & Human Health”. APACE Champion Coordinator, Pauline Neelands-Dale, in association with the World Health Organization will deliver the keynote address “A Unique Global Partnership for ESD - Education for Sustainable Development”. In the photos below we see some of the previous conference participants at the grand opening of the APACE Parliament on 7 December 2017. APACE was formed in 1981 with the aim of providing a platform for sustainable development to counter racism, all forms of oppression and violence, and to bring about a just society in which all peoples are respected and honoured for their shared human dignity and rights. APACE's mission
