Pokemon press conference Stage 4 demo. Demon General Jiraiya - Pokemon HG/SS This video will show you the two different kinds of Poke balls that are being used now in the new Pokemon games, the orb ones and the balls. You can use the first one to catch the pokemon. This is the initial one that is used for the first time you encounter that particular pokemon. If you use the orb ball it can be re charged, which is handy, and it is the ball that you usually use for catching pokemon. There are also 3 types of this ball. The first one is the one that you use to capture the pokemon. The second one is a utility ball that you can use to store items and pokemon. The third one is the ultra ball that also stores items and pokemon that is also used for capturing pokemon. How to capture a pokemon. You can use the orb ball to catch a pokemon. You see the pokemon in a circle and you want to capture it, if you click on the orb the pokemon will change position. Depending on how the pokemon is in this new game it can be attacked by 3 types of attacks. You can learn one of these attacks by holding the ball in front of a pokemon in its wild state. You have to click when the pokemon is within a specific range. This attack should be done when you are close to a wild pokemon because it could be that you have to run all the way there.

The first one you have to attack is the special attack that the pokemon has. Its number is very important as it tells you which attack you can use with that pokemon, as an example, Porygon is one of the newly introduced pokemon. It has a special attack that does massive damage. It can only be used on certain pokemon. When you
