Black Desert: Asian Online is a game which is related to the famous MMORPG, Black Desert Online (BDO), which is the most popular title in Korea and China in the same genre. Though the game is not out yet in western regions, almost all the content seen in BDO, such as monsters, weapons, dungeons, etc. are in the game. So we get to know what kind of game it is through this game. 1) Mastery (EX Skill) The first part of this game is the EX Skill called “Mastery”. This is what separates Black Desert from other games in its genre in terms of gameplay and fun. This is a skill that is generated at a certain percentage and is used for Active Skill use. It is used with the Right Stick. You can only use your passive skills once after using it. For example, if you use the skill, it’s gonna be the same as using another skill which is used after that skill. For example, if you use it on a weapon, you will use that weapon one time more. It increases the damage dealt by your weapon or skill. (additional effects will be explained in “Mastery” point 5) 1. Mastery 1/1 Increases your accuracy and reduces the damage dealt by your weapon by a flat amount. 2. Mastery
