One of the sequel to the classic kung fu movie The Hypernaturals, the Kung Fury: Street Rage sends the latest kung fu cinema hero onto the mean streets of 1990s San Francisco to kick some butt, take some names, and save the world. Features: An epic storyline composed of 4 episodes with an original cut of the theatrical version, each with their own development schedule and featuring original songs. Classic characters like Zarkman and Kato from The Hypernaturals set in a future where they're still as gangster as they were in the '80s. A variety of Kung Fu styles and fight mechanics designed to be easy to learn but difficult to master. Kung Fury: Street Rage features: - 4 fully-featured single player missions with 10 levels each - 3 different area styles - Classic Kung-Fu movie presentation with lots of effects and music - New cinematic style animation with full controller support - Support for SideStep - Designed for up to four people! - Beautiful new pixel artwork and high quality soundtrack - Keyboard/Gamepad or two-button WiFi only support X/XO$599.99$6.99 Kung Fury is an action-packed kung-fu fueled action-comedy game set in a post-apocalyptic future. The retro visuals, soundtrack, and gameplay reminds us of the movies we used to love watching in the '80s and '90s. Features: Epic story and cinematic presentation composed of four episodes with an original cut of the theatrical version, each with their own development schedule and featuring original songs. Classic characters like Zarkman and Kato from The Hypernaturals set in a future where they're still as gangster as they were in the '80s. The 19th century Vaudevillian Kai King will be your guide and introduce you to the Kung Fury world. Thank you for your support! Kanji Heroes (Huge news update! The development of Kanji Heroes is now official! We are now looking for help and feedback from you, the fans! Kanji Heroes began as a Word Game but at the same time, we have the ambition to create a new genre of game as well. So we have now decided that Kanji Heroes shall be a full-fledged mobile game, and we're really looking forward to your ideas and support. We are aware that a free-to-play game is quite a new concept for us, but we've believed that it's the best way to develop a larger community and to make a large number of players comfortable. We're now building Kanji Heroes into a free-to-play game. Please try Kanji Heroes c9d1549cdd

What's new in Tactical Galactical:

. Wednesday, 29 March 2009 Exciting news Yesterday I got an email that my new commission at Dance Studios in Vienna has got me assigned. Given that I'm guessing that what I'm about to receive is something along the lines of, "Go and get your dance smock on", I decided to share my joy with the rest of the world. That of course brings me to the best resource I can find and no, it is not the dance institute themselves. I found a picture of the studio and just Googled it.... So considering this is my first large scale ballroom dance experience (I hesitate to call it a big dance because there really isn't enough incentive to a competition when the really big competition is London Fashion Week) I am now excited but also anxious. Yes, I've done private lessons before and always enjoyed them and I'm also very lucky because my mom picked me up from lessons to the studio on Tuesday nights. But Tuesday night was also the other half of my week and so it was in the early evening and after the insanity of the school day I often found myself in my PJs ready to hit the sack. This dance is a testament to my job though since I've actually got to go to the studio every week (once a week as I've mentioned) which is a dream for a girl who comes from people who are always saying, "oh yeah, you can do it. You can do what you want to do." So after a couple of years of dance I guess I've started to learn that there are definite advantages to doing anything as this is the principle of my posting where there are no immediate ramifications. It's more of a review-type while nothing else I do is by nature. I guess that I have decided to share this with you all because I want to say and show that even I can do this. Sure, I started after Christmas but I was aware of it for ages. It's just that as you get older more things get in your way. But here I am, sort of ready to break through some walls. Tuesday, 21 March 2009 I just remembered that I have a practice report. Does this mean that I'm graduating from the 2.0 movement or am I just going to have two summers worth of backpacking in Highgate Cemetery with the possibility of Welsh Heritage Bursary for Grace? Its hard to know. Sunday, 19 March 2009 After the rather average weekend last
