According to Politico, those meetings were marred by booing and shouting from conservative groups opposed to the plan. The Huffington Post reported that during one meeting, an attendee reportedly shouted, "Kill Obamacare now" and, "Let's kill Obama now," while another reportedly yelled, "Hit him with golf clubs," and "This is not helping to pass a health care bill." Rep. Mary Bono Mack (R-CA), who met with the conservative American Action Network, said she was told the exchange was "probably not appropriate for the meeting," and added, "What I said to them was 'I understand, and I respect that, and we are going to work together.'"Kristian Nairn Kristian James Nairn (born 14 July 1965) is a Scottish actor, producer, author and director. He is best known for his role as Dr. Anton DuBeau in Merlin, Duncan Reed in the long-running series Foyle's War and the Jack Donnelly character in Downton Abbey. Early life Nairn was born in Paisley, Scotland and was educated at Paisley High School (now Paisley Grammar School). He studied literature and drama at Glasgow University from 1984 to 1988. Career Nairn's debut television role was as Private Rudy in the BBC TV comedy series Cassell's People in 1987. The role was written to play on Nairn's resemblance to the American actor with a similar name James Caan. He then appeared as Jed Moss, the enigmatic lodger of
