“I noticed that the game had some recycled themes from Tales of Legendia that I was so happy to see. From the cooking system to the music, there’s definitely elements that appeal to me. I also want to say that I’m really happy that they are making it for PC in the first place.” - Shiiki “The fighting system is a little different, but it was actually very fun to play. I expected more challenging battles, but it was surprisingly easy. Also, I didn’t expect that magic spells would play such a big role.” -Cedric “The game definitely has some familiarity.” - Filip “The music and sound effects were pretty good, but some of the animation frames were rather odd.” - Murk “The battle system was a little hard to get used to, but I felt it was solid overall.” - Coffee “It seems like a great combat game, but it may require some patience to get used to.” - Dabi “I think the difficulty is increasing smoothly to make sure it doesn’t frustrate the player.” - Joseph “The game has a very stylish and somewhat disturbing character design.” - Chronia “The power is created depending on the character’s fighting skill. If it becomes better, the character will become stronger.” -Yusaku “I was shocked by the story. It was one of the most interesting stories I’ve ever seen.” - Lumen “The story takes place in a parallel world.” - Candace “The set-up for the story is amazing.” - Nio “The game was deeply satisfying. I wanted to continue playing until the end.” - Maxine “I highly recommend the game to the fans of the Tales of series.” - Ki “If you want to enjoy the story of the Tales of series, I strongly recommend this game.” - Johannes “The game is diverse and interesting in its own way.” - Les “It was bff6bb2d33

The Kohler Company, the maker of kitchen and bath appliances, said that it will close stores in Minnesota and Colorado on May 3. It said this reduces its operating costs as those stores will be excluded from the lease-renewal process that ended on March 13. Kohler said that the lease in the Minnesota stores fell far short of the quota set by Kohler, which landlord The Related Cos. agreed last year to honor as part of its $42 million, 75,000-square-foot lease. The sales volume in those stores averaged 1,701 mfg units, Kohler said. Under the lease in Colorado, Kohler said sales there averaged just 75 mfg units, well short of what Kohler had expected. “We believe this decision will decrease future operating costs in those markets,” the company said in a statement. Regardless, Kohler said the closures will not generate any significant cash for the company. But it cited tight margin conditions and high selling prices for appliance sales as other reasons why Kohler no longer needs all its properties. “Given the current state of the retail environment, we will no longer invest shareholder dollars in these properties,” the company said. les jeunes hommes féminines" ("youthful men").
