Recent Reviews: Fun, but... - 3/13/2017 A hot day at the beach = Fun = Playing this game and having not seen some of the stages before (like 3,4,6,7) = Going to have to replay them to get a better idea of the way things work Peaceful for the most part - 12/10/2016 I have been using this game for over a year now, and I love it. I think the difficulty is perfect. There are no in-app purchases, and the developers have spent tons of time working on the game and updates. The graphics are beautiful, and while they are not perfect in every department, they are acceptable. I have read some negative reviews claiming that the jumping isn't satisfying, but I disagree. I absolutely love how smooth and responsive the jumping feels, and it is so natural that I often forget about it altogether. The physics are good, and as long as you have a good gamepad, you should have no problems. I can see that some people who are newer to the game (or non-gaming people) would have trouble, but if you pick it up and play it for just a little while, you'll be fine. The options for difficulty are adjustable, so you can be patient and take your time and slowly work your way to the harder stages. I personally always choose the second level of the Hard mode and the second level of Easy mode, with one exception: if I get stuck on a level, I try to work my way to the next level (Level 2 to level 3 in Easy mode, or Level 1 to 2 in Hard mode), and I usually find a workable solution (and I've found solutions for most levels so far). My final advice is to take your time with this game and pick it up and put it down often. That is the only way to really get comfortable with it. Thought it was a bad game before I got it - 10/20/2016 The first thing I will say is that it is a wonderful game. Really can't tell you more until you have played it through. I thought at first that I wouldn't like it because I'm not a fan of games that force you to keep track of your current location, and as long as you know where you are, you can see what you need to do to go to the next place. It took me a while to get over that first obstacle, but once I did

What's new:

Info: Members who have achieved Gold or Platinum Patron status in the Ikeda Shingen Chapter will be granted one free polish of the bottle of the UD Obaku (.999 Fine) mantlepiece with the corresponding signature holder, and one polishing cloth. It's an old relief but in the very same month, by the way, the gold and platinum badge can be applied to you as well. First, complete the required routine ONLY at the [French] guide, so that the coin will be sent properly. (And then, it will be mechanically embroidered on your support according to the file posted on the wiki. If you do not have the membership yet, perhaps we will need you for download/transfer it?) I assume it is because it is a challenge to find the POLISHERS who hold the rarest (and, in fact, obsolete) Badge of Honor in a large group, and it would be absurd to not have it widely circulated among the brewers, especially in the artisanal pub. Edit: oh yes, if you didn't notice, the cost of the polish has skyrocketed, so it is even more relevant to be found among the members of the IS franchise. But never mind.

New F.A.C.T.eR. - fake-news ===== fake-news The service is a bit like a news aggregator with all the latest news headlines for a variety of topics (all politics, all technology, all science). There are no articles, we simply add anything that we think may be of interest. To build the site I found a variety of references but it seems that a lot of the content has been copied and pasted from various sources to promote the service. Some of the sources are definitely better than others. I am sure there are lots of things that I am missing but that's not the point at the moment. All I am trying to say is that I think the service could be a lot more interesting if it tried to add some original content. Modulation of copper-induced apoptosis in human neuroblastoma cells by Hsp70. The role of Hsp70 and the p38 MAPK pathway in copper-induced apoptosis in human neuroblastoma (NB) cells was studied.
