How can I fix this? I purchased a wireless USB docking station for my laptop at Costco. They had a coupon but you have to buy $99 of their other equipment. I bought the keyboard/mouse and the touchscreen, but did not purchase the docking station. I got home and went to plug in the keyboard/mouse and it wouldn't work. All the cords were connected and the left connectors were also opened to the left, but the lights were not working. I tried the keyboard on my laptop and it worked fine, so I then tried it on my desktop and it still didn't work. I then tried it on my desktop at home, and it still didn't work. I tried to get tech support, and they told me that the USB needed to be plugged in to the docking station. I tried again, and it worked this time. I called back and got support again, and they said that the desktop needed to have it plugged in. I tried again and it didn't work. I then plugged it in and I got to the point that the USB was plugged in, but no longer, and then I lost connection. I tried going to Costco to get the left side plugged in, but they said it was not the dock's fault, it was just another item in the laptop that broke. I then tried going to Best Buy and they told me that it was the dock's fault and it was my computer's fault. I was told that I was going to get a gift card and that Costco "does not want to
