Roblox is an online game platform and game creation system developed by Roblox Corporation that allows users to program games and play games created by other users. Created by David Baszucki and Erik Cassel in 2004 and released in 2006, the platform hosts user-created games of multiple genres coded in the programming language Lua. For most of Roblox's history, it was relatively small, both as a platform and a company. Roblox began to grow rapidly in the second half of the 2010s, and this growth has been accelerated by the COVID-19 pandemic. Roblox is free to play, with in-game purchases available through a virtual currency called Robux. As of August 2020, Roblox had over 164 million monthly active users, including more than half of all American children under 16. Although Roblox has received generally positive reviews from critics, it has faced criticism for its moderation, microtransactions, and exploitative practices directed toward children. Some of us grew up watching the same Disney movies as our parents.

Others, like me, grew up with our noses in a computer game, and watched the characters on screen perform magical feats. My little brother loves watching the Disney Channel for the comforting homesickness he feels for the family home in Tennessee. For children of any age, Disney is the place to go for entertainment: The stories, songs, and characters all stick with us, and there's nothing like gathering around the television to sing along to the latest Disney hit. But if your childhood was anything like mine, it also means navigating through the Disney music and movies you grew up listening to. That's why I've compiled a list of the best songs from Disney Films, TV Shows, and more for you and your kids. The music from these songs is important to the movies they come from, and there's no better way to learn about these songs than to hear them as they were originally performed. Many of these songs are recognizable classics that last the test of time, and there are a few songs that are so famous that kids still know the words to them after being on the radio for decades. The songs on this list span the breadth of Disney history, whether they've been a part of a beloved Disney movie, TV show, or even a Disney theme park attraction. There are songs from beloved movies like Toy Story and Up, as well as beloved TV shows like Gargoyles and 101 Dalmatians. There are also songs from classic

Roblox is a freemium massively multiplayer online game developed and published by RIX Entertainment. Launched as an HTML5 game in July 2010, Roblox later appeared on iOS. The game uses a free-to-play model, such as a "gameplay currency" or "virtual goods", rather than real money transactions.[citation needed] While the app is primarily played on mobile devices, Roblox launched a browser-based version in 2013, which allows web users to play the game in an all-in-one format, without the need for a separate app on their phones. In Roblox, the players are called "Creators" and create new objects such as buildings or ships by combining simple shapes in a virtual 3D environment. These objects can be made to interact by players, and can also be grouped in a "community" with other users' creations. The users can create an unlimited number of objects as well as play against others in various games. Certain tasks in the game are obtained either from "Robux" which are in-game currency, or from the "V-Bucks" which is a premium virtual currency that can be purchased with real money (collectable Robux are found in Roblox and can be automatically purchased by players for in-game currency). Roblox has had at least four game modes: For one, "Team Sports," where teams use their "sledge," to drive the ball, which is bigger and has more power than the players. The ball can be used to score points, and the bigger the sledge, the more points you can get. Second, "Create & Play," where players can be creative
