Pdf - The Vedas are the greatest literature of ancient India. Each Veda talks about the creation of universe and mankind. The Vedas are the oldest of all ancient Indian literature that started on time which is thousands of years ago. The Vedas were mostly written in Sanskrit. They were composed in two stages and over a period of approximately a thousand years. The Vedas were composed by the rishis, sages, and gods. They had passed the knowledge from their forefathers as well as preserved it for the future generations. These books consist of hymns which mainly have religious meanings. Some of these hymns have been translated into English. He went further to say that these three - the Vedas, the Shastras and the Jyotisha - were as powerful as the Bible and the Quran. Of these, several hymns in the Rig-Veda are translated in Hindi by poet Harishwar Dayal Misra in his book - Yajur-Veda. The Hymns of the Rig-Veda are sung in almost every temple of the Hindus, even those that are not called Vedic temples. The Shruti can be seen in Vedic temple, the holiest of temples, and these hymns are available in various versions. The following table contains those words which are translated in Hindi as well as their English equivalent. 6d1f23a050
