Averill, Deceased, Appellant, v. The INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION, et al. (John A. Lyda, Inc., Appellee), No. 66921, Supreme Court of Illinois, October 22, 1992. Joseph M. Burns, of Evans & Burns, P.C., of Carmi, for appellant, Jerome Schur, of Gottlieb & Schwartz, of Chicago, for appellee. Appellate court reversed; circuit court affirmed. JUSTICE MILLER delivered the opinion of the court: The decedent, William H. Averill, was killed in a construction accident. An arbitrator *439 found that Averill had not been in the course of his employment and awarded benefits accordingly. The Industrial Commission confirmed the award. The circuit court of Whiteside County set aside the award, finding that it was against the manifest weight of the evidence, but the appellate court reversed that decision. (255 Ill.App.3d 1056.) We allowed the administrator's petition for leave to appeal. (Ill. Rev.Stat.1987, ch. 110, par. 901.) We agree with the appellate court that the finding of the arbitrator was not against the manifest weight of the evidence, and we therefore reverse the judgment of the appellate court. The c6a93da74d
