The "License Agreement" pop-up window should have prompted you to accept by clicking the "Accept" button. A: A possible reason is because you're using IE? I'm not sure if it's just IE, or other browsers as well. Try downloading and running this. If that works, then you have an IE thing going on. Q: how to detect wcf duplex service endpoint context is in client machine I have a duplex WCF service, which is running inside ASP.NET 3.5 application. Before starting the service I check the host machine url, to know the endpoint context is not in IIS. When the service started, it means the machine host running ASP.NET 4.0/4.5. How do I check if the endpoint context is for

ASP.NET application and not for IIS(server)? A: Use System.ServiceMo del.ServiceHost.IsHostInRole Method

From MSDN Returns a value indicating whether the service host is running in either the host role or the client role. Example string hostName = System.ServiceModel.ServiceHost. IsHostInRole(new Uri("")).HostName; Q: CRM 2011 - How do i change the colour of the Phone Number information? Is there any way to change the colour of the Phone Number field in the Contact.xap, or the look of the text in the Field HTML? I can't find any information on this anywhere! A: Look for CommonStyles.cmp in the zipped installer. This stylesheet allows you to redefine a few forms of common UI elements. If you have any form-level tweaks to tweak on, then use this file. Fauja Singh presented evidence that he claims gives him an unfair advantage over his fellow competitors in the Games village. Tournament officials said Fauja Singh has been suspended for the remainder of the games, which are due to be decided over the next three days. "Fauja Singh is not allowed to compete in the games village or the competition," said chef de mission Peter Drury. "In the interim period between qualifying rounds and the main event he c6a93da74d
