The compact and portable space saving, no-slip, padded case can be easily popped open to reveal five double-sided pages of A5-sized notebook or papers. The RollSak has an extended polycarbonate grey shell and a soft padded lining for your convenience. The insulated polycarbonate shell allows for maximum heat & cold resistance, and the included nylon cord keeps your notebook inside while lending the case its sleek minimalist look.“As I was saying, I hate work and work sucks the big one.” These are the words most likely to come out of the mouth of a man on a computer having a chat with a girl. And if he was actually working in said office, what he would be saying is something more like, “I hate work, but I love money, and the government has been paying me for some time now to do nothing, so I’ll have to do it, even if I despise the entire process.” He is of course talking about unemployment benefits. From the Telegraph: Sweden’s entire population is unemployed – not just a large slice like Spain and Greece – as the benefit system is so generous that it offers a right to paid employment to much of the population. It is a giant taxpayer-funded job-creation scheme c6a93da74d
