The 20-minute program depicts the possible aftermath of a military conflict between Israel and Iran, and features a fictitious story about one student named Yuval Yadin, a member of the Israeli Special Forces, who vows to go to Tehran and kill its leader Ayatollah Khomeini. The program was broadcasted without comment from the Israeli military, nor was it reviewed by the Israeli broadcasting authority, the Broadcast Authority of Israel (BAI). The show itself contains material that is close to committing a war crime, such as broadcasting fake information about the location of Iranian command centers and nuclear facilities, and defaming the Iranians as a dangerous and bloody regime. Channel 13, which is the principal channel of Israel Broadcasting Authority (IBA), has not made any apology or explanation to the Iranian public. The show was aired without being reviewed by the BAI. The program, which was produced by veteran Israeli actor and director Menahem Golan, was broadcasted without authorization from the relevant military authorities, who have not been informed of it, and almost certainly would have objected to the program. The IBA's decision to broadcast the show was a violation of its bylaws, which require that the program be reviewed by the relevant military authorities, have been submitted to c6a93da74d
